OUR RULES

Just a few guidelines to keep us all safe!

1. All customers have a 2 hour slot for their visit – if you are late for any reason your slot will still end at the same time to make it fair to everyone.
2. Children must always stay at the table unless they need to use the bathroom then must be accompanied by an adult from their table (kids' climbing area is closed).
3. Dogs must stay on the lead at all times without exception.
4. Ordering and paying for food and drinks will all be done from your table by card payment only
5. We will do all the leg work so you won't need to leave the table – sit back and relax.
6. At this current time its a maximum of 6 people per table and it is important that you book in line with the latest Government rules and guidance. See www.gov.uk/coronavirus
7. Unfortunately for the time being we ask you don't mix with other tables on your visit to maintain social distancing for the safety of customers and staff.
8. If you pick an outside table and the weather turns wet you can move your booking to another date or move to a table inside the pub or in the upstairs restaurant area if we have availability at that time.
9. Staff have the right to refuse to serve anyone who doesn't comply with the rules or even may be asked to leave the premises
10. There is no standing at the bar, pre-booked table seating only.
11. There is a one-way system in place in the pub and hand sanitation stations around the pub so please use them, especially before and after eating.

THANK YOU!
